Killer.com online shop

They send what ever they had. I didn't get proper fit from them. I ordered comfort fit. But they send slim fit with comfort fit sticker. Simply they cheating customers. So never order from their online shop. Return policy is very tough and it is possible after their email. Last twenty years I am using their jeans. But I hate their online shop. They supply anything they have in stock.

ORM Observations

Be on the Blogs, social media or third party websites, the brand is not responsive or interactive.

Competitors:

LEVIS:

Levi's targets the upper-middle class and upper-class segment. The brand USP is that it is the oldest jeans brand, yet modern in its style and fit

PEPE JEANS:

This brand is the fastest growing brand and carries a different view of selling jeans. Designing menswear, womenswear, kidswear, footwear, and themed collection. The company targets in providing a total satisfaction to the customers by giving an exceptional attention to service.

AND THE SURVEY SAYS...

People nowadays prefer brands like Levi's and Lee over Killer Jeans.

They still prefer to buy jeans from an offline store as they want to check the quality physically and check the fitting of the clothes.

The types of denim that they wear have a strong impact on the personality that they wish to portray.

CUSTOMER PAIN POINTS

CUSTOMER PAIN POINTS:

- Brand communication seems to be more one way
- Less brand awareness as compared to its competitors
- Less connect with the youth that the brand is targeting

SOLUTIONS

Marketing Strategy Insight

Killer Jeans with their digital marketing strategy has always tapped into concepts like "This is Us" and "Together as One". The brand has always believed in connecting with the youth and communicating a strong message to them.

Hisar Institute of Digital Marketing

Currently looking at the situation and the elections approaching this year, Vinika Shah and Trishla Lakhani would encourage the youth to stand up and support what is right, in the India society with their Social Media Marketing Campaign.

Concept Note:

Political parties in power have made undue promises to the current generation. Out of which some of the promises have been fulfilled and some not. This campaign would purely focus on highlighting the things that have been promised and fulfilled. It would also bring to notice expectations that the citizens have from the new government that would come in power.

Campaign OBJECTIVE

- To promote the brand's identity as “rebellious”
- To generate more awareness about the brand leading to increase in sales
- To make a strong connection with the target audience through constant two-way communication

Campaign Description:

Hashtag:

KILLER

FILLER

#KillerFiller

Campaign was divided into 4 stages:

Stage 1:

This phase would be highlighting the "Killer" promises.

Stage 2:

This phase would have more of on-ground activities in terms of street plays, flash mobs, and skits.

Stage 3:

This phase would focus on promoting the #KillerFillerChallenge which will be a viral challenge for the youth

Stage 4:

This phase would focus on lightening the mood of the campaign by getting in a renowned influencer.

Stage 1:

This phase would be launched by posting creatives across all social media platforms like Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, Pinterest, and blogs.

Duration: 8 Days

Stage 2:

These activities will take place in malls, airports, railway stations, and movie theatres

The end of this phase would trigger the launch of the third phase i.e., the #KillerFillerChallenge

Live videos on all social media platforms, coverage of the same on news channels, regional or local news channels depending on the city will be used to share these events.

Duration and Location: 20 Cities, 20 Days

Stage 3:

KILLER
FILLER

Social Media Platforms (majorly twitter polls), YouTube Ads and testimonial videos, OOH, Ambient Advertising, Newspaper Advertorials, Quora Questions will be used to showcase this.

Duration: 15 Days

Stage 4:

This phase would focus on lightening the mood of the campaign by getting in a renowned influencer. It would also softly promote the products that the brand is offering.

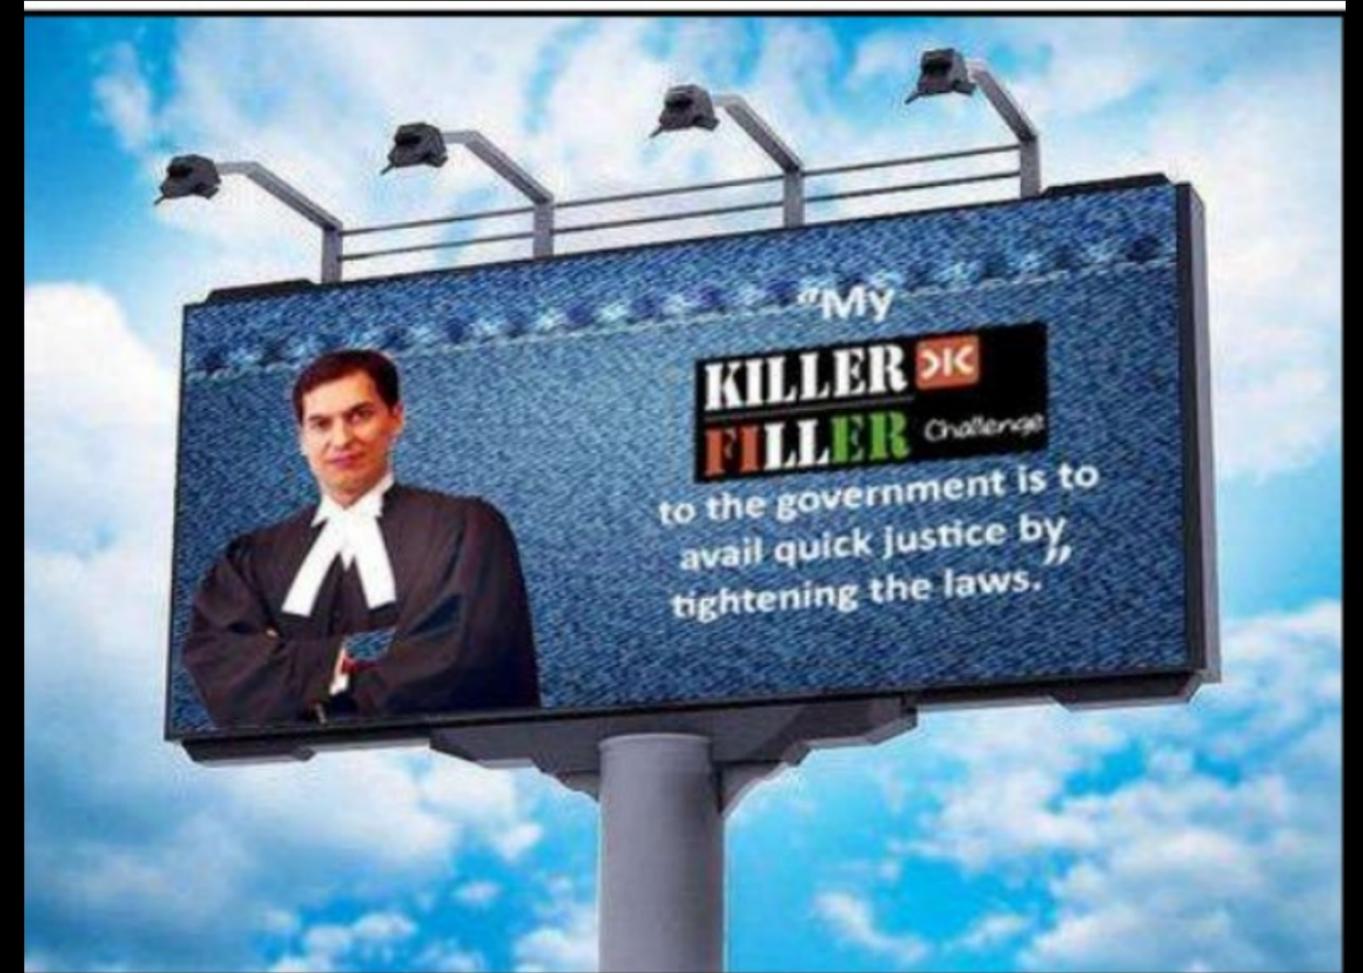

This will be done through Social Media Marketing and YouTube videos.

Duration: 6 Days

OFFLINE MARKETING

Depending on the profession of the person content on the hording will change.

Newspaper
Advertorial would help to promote the campaign better.

CONCLUSION

Campaign has been planned to integrate online and offline mediums. Through this campaign, the brand will have a strong media presence as compared to its competitors. Through the content of this campaign, the brand will have a larger impact on the audience.

THANK
